The art of making them

Just as the drummer in his gay uniform of searlet and gold is more conspicuous than the man in the ranks, so an advertisement skilfully dressed by an expert craftsman will always stand out from the crowd.

We specialise in the art of setting advertisements and we are in a position to offer advertisers an advertisement setting service which is second to none in Shanghai and we can place at their disposal one of the finest and most up-to-date printing plants in the Far East.

May we send a representative round to see you?

The Story of the Most

Unique Court in the World

IN no other city of the world will be found a court of justice quite equal to the International Mixed Court of Shanghai—in the especial reasons for its establishment, in the rules under which it functions and in the opposition which its very existence engenders.

SHANGHAI:

Its Mixed Court and Council

By A. M. KOTENEV

624 pp., 8vo., full cloth binding Mex. $20.00

MEMBERS of the Bar gave recognition to the need of such a work by their immediate purchases upon its publication. But it is not essentially a book for the law library; it rather should find a place on the book-shelf of every business executive whose interests in any way touch those coming under the jurisdiction of the Mixed Court.

North-China Daily News

ESTABLISHED IN 1864

To the Reader

The "North-China Daily News" writes the history of China. It records the pulse of its politics; it reports the conditions of its finance and its markets; and it chronicles the daily doings of its people.

To the Advertiser

The greatest purchasing power in China is that possessed by readers of the "North-China Daily News." It is the newspaper which is found in every office, consular or commercial; it is most frequently quoted both by the foreign and vernacular press; and it is the one newspaper which combines a quality with a quantity circulation—being the largest both in size and circulation in China. It is the only newspaper publishing periodical audited circulation statements.

OLD TARTAR TRAILS

By A. S. KENT

Central Asia has always been a forbidden land, except to the few who have had courage to face her thousand-mile-long trails, her mountain passes, and the nomads who range hither and thither across her bleak plateaus in search of game or grass. Mr. Kent has visited her ancient cities and lamaseries, now inaccessible, and tells of his experiences and difficulties. Many photographs bring us nearer to this strange people.

THE GREAT RIVER

By Gretchen Mae Fitkin

The backbone of China is her great river—the Yangtzekiang. No one can fully understand China's politics, people or prospects without a knowledge of the world's greatest river. It is a closed book at present; its acquaintance can, however, be made by everyone interested in China who cares to read this book, which is well illustrated.

The Story of the Most Unique Court in the World

IN no other city of the world will be found a court of justice quite equal to the International Mixed Court of Shanghai—in the especial reasons for its establishment, in the rules under which it functions and in the opposition which its very existence engenders.

SHANGHAI:

Its Mixed Court and Council

By A. M. KOTENEV

MEMBERS of the Bar gave recognition to the need of such a work by their immediate purchases upon its publication. But it is not essentially a book for the law library; it rather should find a place on the book-shelf of every business executive whose interests in any way touch those coming under the jurisdiction of the Mixed Court.

LAND MEASURE.

Mow.—The following notification published in 1861 by H.B.M. Consul defines the area of a Shanghai mow:—

Each more is 240 poo long by 1 poo broad, and contains, therefore, 240 square poo.

The poo measures 5 feet Chinese Government Rule, equal to 66 inches, English. A square poo, therefore, contains 3,025 square feet, English, and a square mow 7,260 square feet, Knglish; so that a square plece of ground measuring 85.20569 feet, or 85; feet every way, contains exactly one Shanghai mow. The Paoshan or Woosung mow contains only 6,600 square feet.

Shanghai mow - 1.1 Paoshan mow. Paoshan mow - 909 Shanghai mow.
